Unit 5 PRONOUNS

Lesson 42: Using I and Me, We and Us (pp. 188–191)

Remember

The pronoun I is a subject pronoun. Use I as the subject of a sentence. The pronoun me is an object pronoun. Use me as a direct object or as the object of a preposition. When you speak or write about yourself and another person, always name the other person first. Use the rules above to help you decide which pronoun to use. Sometimes a noun is used with we or us to make clear whom you are talking about. Use we with noun subjects. Use us with a direct object or the object of a preposition.

Write the word or words in parentheses that correctly complete each sentence.
