

Name _____

Unit 5 PRONOUNS

Lesson 44: Relative Pronouns and Relative Adverbs (pp. 196–199)

Remember

A complex sentence is made up of two related ideas. In a complex sentence, a relative pronoun introduces the second idea when it is adding information about or describing the noun in the first idea. Who, which, that, whose, and whom are relative pronouns. A relative adverb tells where, when, or why.

Write the relative pronoun or relative adverb in parentheses that correctly completes each sentence.

1. A rake, a watering can, and a shovel are the tools _____ we need to garden. (who, that)
2. The girl _____ birthday we are celebrating is eleven years old. (that, whose)
3. I will park the car _____ you tell me. (where, why)
4. Is that the teacher to _____ you gave the paper? (which, whom)
5. We will decorate the cake _____ it is done baking. (when, where)
6. Susan said "Zhen bang," _____ means awesome in Chinese. (who, which)
7. The reason _____ you should not let go of your balloon is because it will fly away. (why, when)
8. Dark clouds usually appear _____ a storm is coming. (why, when)
9. The grandmother _____ lives in Texas is his mother's mother. (whose, who)
10. Put the coins in a safe place _____ you will remember them. (why, where)
11. They are trying to help the man _____ car broke down. (which, whose)
12. The bird _____ is singing is a canary. (who, that)
13. Is that the coach _____ team you are joining? (whom, whose)
14. I was the one _____ he told about the festival. (which, whom)
15. This is the treehouse _____ the children like to play. (where, when)