

Name _____

Unit 1 SENTENCES

Lesson 4: Subjects in Imperative Sentences (pp. 20–23)

Remember

The subject of a sentence tells whom or what the sentence is about.

An imperative sentence gives a command or makes a request. The subject of an imperative sentence is always you. The word you is not stated directly, but it is understood to be the subject.

Write the simple subject of each sentence. If the sentence is an imperative, write You.

1. Measure the number of miles to Houston. _____
2. No plants grow well in this soil. _____
3. A cruel king ruled the land harshly. _____
4. Please read to me your favorite poem. _____
5. Amelia Earhart flew across the Atlantic in 1932. _____
6. A terrible tornado destroyed the house last spring. _____
7. Look for the key under the doormat. _____
8. Set your alarm clock for noon at the latest. _____
9. Many similar paintings hang in the museum downtown. _____
10. Name the most unusual character in the story. _____
11. Take some sandwiches for the long trip home. _____
12. The cat with long gray hair belongs to Allison. _____
13. The young actor met us at the theater. _____
14. A rescue helicopter flew over the beach. _____
15. Watch out for snakes over by the creek. _____