

Name _____

Unit 4 ADJECTIVES, ADVERBS, CONJUNCTIONS, AND PREPOSITIONS

Lesson 32: Comparing with Good and Bad (pp. 144–147)

Remember

The words better and best are the two forms of the adjective good that are used for comparing. The words worse and worst are the two forms of the adjective bad that are used for comparing. Do not use -er or -est or more or most when comparing good and bad.

Write the form of the adjective in parentheses that correctly completes each sentence.

1. The jazz concert was better than the rock concert. (good)
2. The drummer was the best musician in the band. (good)
3. Of the four sisters, Rania sings best. (good)
4. Sean has a worse temper than his brother Brian. (bad)
5. This year's pear harvest is worse than last year's. (bad)
6. Of all your jokes, that was clearly the worst. (bad)
7. My drawing is bad, but yours is worse. (bad)
8. This is the best photo of Mom that I've ever seen. (good)
9. Let's go to a better restaurant than this. (good)
10. This week's weather was the best I've seen in months. (good)
11. That car will look better if you polish it. (good)
12. Michael's best character trait is his sincerity. (good)
13. The worst part of the climate here is the humidity. (bad)
14. No meal could taste better than this one! (good)
15. If anything, the second act was worse than the first. (bad)