

Name _____

Unit 6 CAPITALIZATION, PUNCTUATION, AND SPELLING

Lesson 45: Titles (pp. 204–207)

Remember

Titles of books, magazines, and newspapers are set off by italics in printed material. When you write by hand, underline the titles.

Titles of songs and most poems are set off by quotation marks.

Write the title in each sentence on the line. Capitalize each title. Also underline or add quotation marks to set off the title.

1. We sang along as the band played it's a grand old flag.

"It's a Grand Old Flag"

2. Did the author of nate the great write any other books?

Nate the Great

3. Our library has kids discover and many other magazines.

Kids Discover

4. freckle juice by Judy Blume is one of my favorite books.

Freckle Juice

5. I will now read a poem called the naming of cats.

"The Naming of Cats"

6. puzzles and games is Steven's favorite magazine.

Puzzles and Games

7. I borrowed the summer of the swans from the library.

The Summer of the Swans

8. Please put that copy of family fun back with the other magazines.

Family Fun

9. message from a caterpillar is a very short poem.

"Message from a Caterpillar"

10. Together, we sang this land is your land.

"This Land Is Your Land"