

Name _____

Unit 5 PRONOUNS

Lesson 38: Using I and Me (pp. 172–175)

Remember

The pronoun I is a subject pronoun. I is used only as the subject of a sentence. The pronoun me is an object pronoun. Me is used after an action verb or after a word such as at, for, of, to, or with.

Write I or me to correctly complete each sentence.

1. My family and _____ I _____ traveled to Chicago by train.
2. This game belongs to Ellen and _____ me _____.
3. The shooting star amazed my friends and _____ me _____.
4. Kim and _____ I _____ chose a radio station.
5. Ganesh and _____ I _____ are looking forward to the camping trip.
6. My classmates and _____ I _____ made a list of safety rules.
7. Angela showed Bobby and _____ me _____ her new watch.
8. Nick taught Pam and _____ me _____ a new dance step.
9. Cathy and _____ I _____ signed the get-well card.
10. My cousins and _____ I _____ looked through the photo album.
11. Susan gave Tom and _____ me _____ a shell for our collection.
12. Dragana and _____ I _____ learned how to make disappearing ink.
13. My friends and _____ I _____ played tug-of-war.
14. My dad sent Herman and _____ me _____ a book of puzzles.
15. Mom reminded Chris and _____ me _____ about the change to daylight savings time.