Thanks for inviting Bonnie and me to the costume party
<sup>which/that</sup> ~~who~~ you will be having, Sam. We <sup>think</sup> ~~thinks~~ it will be lots of fun.

Bonnie and ~~me~~ <sup>I</sup> have already decided on our costumes.

Bonnie wants to dress as a scuba diver. She already has flippers, and she can make a backpack look like an air tank.

Right now, she can't find <sup>her</sup> ~~hers~~ diving mask, but there's no reason <sup>why</sup> ~~when~~ we won't find it.

I want to be a hammerhead shark. <sup>I'll</sup> ~~It'll~~ find a box and make the shark's eyes stick out of the sides. Bonnie is not sure about that, though. She <sup>worries</sup> ~~worrys~~ about my ability to see, but <sup>I've</sup> ~~I've~~ solved that problem.
 How? I'll cut out a hole for the mouth where <sup>my</sup> ~~mine~~ real eyes are.

I think <sup>we'll</sup> ~~well~~ look good together, since we'll both be from the sea.

Bonnie and I can't wait to see the other kids and see the costumes <sup>that/which</sup> ~~whom~~ they will wear. I guess we'll have to wait till the party. We'll see you their at the hall <sup>where</sup> ~~which~~ you will have the party next week!
