

Name _____

Unit 4 ADJECTIVES, ADVERBS, CONJUNCTIONS, AND PREPOSITIONS

Lesson 32: Comparing with Good and Bad (pp. 144–147)

Remember

The words better and best are the two forms of the adjective good that are used for comparing. The words worse and worst are the two forms of the adjective bad that are used for comparing. Do not use -er or -est or more or most when comparing good and bad.

Write the form of the adjective in parentheses that correctly completes each sentence.

1. The jazz concert was _____ than the rock concert. (good)
2. The drummer was the _____ musician in the band. (good)
3. Of the four sisters, Rania sings _____. (good)
4. Sean has a _____ temper than his brother Brian. (bad)
5. This year's pear harvest is _____ than last year's. (bad)
6. Of all your jokes, that was clearly the _____. (bad)
7. My drawing is bad, but yours is _____. (bad)
8. This is the _____ photo of Mom that I've ever seen. (good)
9. Let's go to a _____ restaurant than this. (good)
10. This week's weather was the _____ I've seen in months. (good)
11. That car will look _____ if you polish it. (good)
12. Michael's _____ character trait is his sincerity. (good)
13. The _____ part of the climate here is the humidity. (bad)
14. No meal could taste _____ than this one! (good)
15. If anything, the second act was _____ than the first. (bad)