

Name _____

Unit 1 SENTENCES

Lesson 6: Compound Predicates (pp. 28–31)

Remember

A compound predicate has two or more simple predicates that share the same subject. The predicates are joined by the conjunction and or or.

In each sentence, underline the simple predicates in the compound predicate. Then write the conjunction that joins the simple predicates.

1. The people watched and waited. _____
2. The satellite gathers and records information. _____
3. They bought or rented the cabin. _____
4. The flames blazed and crackled in the fireplace. _____
5. The robot beeped and buzzed at us. _____
6. We talked and laughed about our adventures. _____
7. Either Eliza will agree or disagree with your plan. _____
8. All of my friends swim and play tennis at the town park. _____
9. Thunder rumbled, roared and echoed in the valley. _____
10. My friend Vikram builds and flies model airplanes. _____
11. These sandwiches look and taste great! _____
12. Naiman sold or traded the tickets to Junior. _____
13. My brother and I washed and waxed the old sports car. _____
14. They either jump or dive into the pool. _____
15. We read and discuss the stories every day. _____