

Unit 4 Adjectives, Adverbs, Conjunctions, and Prepositions

Lesson 31: Comparing with Adjectives (pp. 140–143)

_	1
Remember	-(
Trefffher		м

An adjective has different forms for comparing. Use either -er or more to compare two people, places, things, or ideas. Use either -est or most to compare more than two items. When you add -er or -est, the spelling may change. Do not use -er or -est together with more and most.

Write the form of the adjective in parentheses that correctly completes each sentence.

1.	Saturday is the	day of the week at our store. (busy)
2.	Geneva bought the	pillows she could find. (soft)
3.	Today's weather is	than yesterday's. (pleasant)
4.	Pikes Peak is the	mountain in Colorado. (high)
5.	Are dolphins	than whales? (intelligent)
6.	Your second painting is	than your first. (lovely)
7.	The whole class was caught in the	storm but Allison got the ((wet)
8.	Your costume is made of	material than mine. (thin)
9.	Arizona has	scenery than my home state. (beautiful)
10.	This is one of the	buildings in the world. (spectacular)
11.	Next year, I'll plan a	project. (simple)
12.	Which of you is	, Gabe or Jerry? (hungry)
13.	This is the	$_{-}$ movie that I have ever seen. (scary)
14.	The trunk of the elm tree is	than the oak's. (wide)
15.	The art in the lobby was	than the art in the gallery. (impressiv	ve)